OIL AND GAS

Development work is confined almost exclusively to the old oil fields and inside of territory that has long since been defined. In the new Salt sand pool at Rosedale, Birch district, Braxton county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its test on the C. F. Lamb farm and has a show for a 20-barrel producer. This is a much better well than the late completions in this pool.

In Smithfield district, Roane county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled No. 8 on the C. F. Lamb farm through the Big Injun sand and has a show for a 10-barrel pump. In Big Sandy district, Kanawha county, the Eastern Carbon Company has completed a test on the J. A. Holte farm and has a good gasser in the Big Injun sand. In Union district, Clay county, the Davenport Oil Company has started to drill No. 12 and has the rig up for No. 13 on the Frank Cox farm. In the same district the Craig Oil Company has started a second test on the M and F. Craig farm.

In the old Blue Creek field, Kanawha county, the Ohio Fuel Oil Company has given its No. 11 on the C. T. Woods farm a shot and increased its production from two to ten barrels a day.

In the Friendly development in Union district, Tyler county, the Swisher Oil Company has completed a test on the J. T. Hugas farm and has a fair gasser in the Big Injun sand. In the same district W. B. Gribble and Sons have completed a second test on the F. L. Yiriden farm and have a small well. T. C. Worley and Company are due in the sand at a test on the S. A. Bawls farm. In the river front district, Wood county, Yost and Company's test on the B. N. Yeon farm is a very light pump. In the Cow Run sand.

In the Eureka district, Pleasants county, the Riggs Farm Oil Company has completed two tests on the G. A. Feely farm. The first is a light pump and the second a dry hole. The Horse Neck Oil Company has completed Nos. 3 and 4 on the Campbell farm and both are very light pumps. In Union district, the Sycamore Oil Company has now drilled its test on the Gallagher farm through all sands and has a duster.

In the Salt sand development at Spencer, Roane county, G. L. Cabot is drilling a well on the B. C. Smith farm and has the rig completed for a test on the Margaret J. Crisp farm. Parker Brothers are drilling their test on the W. B. Polling farm from the Salt sand to the Berea grit. Nothing was found in the Salt sand and gas is expected in the Berea grit.

Near Hookstown, Greene township, Beaver county, Pa., Langhlin, Mathiot and Company have drilled their test on the Frank Nelson farm into the sand and have a show for a small pump. One mile southwest of Georgetown, in the same township, E. A. Freshwater and Company have drilled a test on the Blackwell heirs' farm and have a very light show for oil.

Six miles north of Bessemer and a mile north of Lowellville, in Lawrence county, Pittsburg parties have drilled a wildcat to a depth of more than 3,200 feet and have developed a strong gas pressure. The well showed, it is reported, 350 pounds pressure from the casing head. There is a good deal of speculation as to what sand formation the gas is derived from. In the opinion of some it is the Clinton sand. In the Bessemer pool the Lawson Oil Company has completed No. 6 on the McWilliams farm and has a duster. The Combination Oil Company's No. 20 on the Pasen farm is a light pump.

FOOT

And Mouth Disease Breaks Out among Cattle in Ohio County, This State.

WHEELING, Feb. 26.—The dreaded foot and mouth disease has been discovered in Ohio county.

As a result, a quarantine on the county has been declared by Veterinarian L. K. Reefer, acting for the state, and movements of cattle, sheep and swine and all cloven foot animals and hay, straw, feed, fodder, etc., will be permitted only under restrictions.

The disease was discovered Wednesday on the "Joberty" farm, one of the finest in this section of the county, and owned by Joseph Speidel, Jr., when Dr. Reefer was called to attend a sick Guernsey heifer. The local veterinary immediately called in Dr. Hall, government meat inspector here, and both pronounced the heifer's ailment as the foot and mouth disease.

The malady spread so rapidly that within the same day another heifer and an aged cow had become infected and now there are four animals carrying the contagion with three more showing symptoms.

GROUND TO PIECES.

BLUEFIELD, Feb. 26.—J. T. Forlines, Norfolk and Western watchman at the Coalfield tunnel, was run over by a passenger train there and ground to pieces. He leaves a family.

GERMAN-AMERICANS WILL BE LOYAL TO U.S., SAYS BARTHOLDT

Richard Bartholdt.

Congressman Richard Bartholdt of St. Louis, member of the national house of representatives continuously for the past twenty-two years and who retired on March 4, in a speech in congress last week, assured the house that German-Americans would be loyal to their adopted country no matter what nation it might go to war.

ODD FELLOWS

Of Fairmont Are Busy Preparing for Big Anniversary Celebration April 26.

FAIRMONT, Feb. 26.—The general committee on arrangements for the big Odd Fellows anniversary celebration to be held here April 26, met last night and arranged further for the big meeting.

The opera house has been secured from Manager Denson for that evening, where the Grand Decoration of Chivalry will be conferred.

Brass bands for the parade have been arranged for as well as an orchestra for the evening.

At the conclusion of the entertainment at the opera house refreshments will be served at the armory.

The grand officers of the different branches of Odd Fellows have responded to the committee's invitation and will be present.

The committee adjourned to meet Thursday evening March 11, when details of the program, parade, etc., will be considered.

UNCONCERNED

About the Miners' Strike is the United Mine Workers' Organization Says Cairns.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 26.—That neither the national nor the district organizations of the United Mine Workers of America are concerned one way or another in the strike of 1,000 miners in the Fairmont region is a statement made here by Thomas Cairns, president of district No. 17. Cairns made the statement after a conference with P. F. Gatens, who had just returned from a visit to the Fairmont region as the personal representative of President Cairns. Gatens declared most of the miners had left the trouble zone. He gave it as his opinion that the differences would be settled soon.

INTENSE INTEREST

Is Shown at Revival at Pride Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church.

The revival at Pride's Chapel African Methodist Episcopal church last night was as usual intensely interesting and successful. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather there was a record breaking attendance. There were two conversions and evidences of serious concern throughout the congregation.

Dr. Withrow preached from Mark 8:35. His presentation of the lessons of the text was immensely instructive and effective.

Today's program is as follows:

7:30 p. m.—Prayer service, led by Mrs. Lella Cross.
8:00 p. m.—Prayer service, led by Mrs. Ida Roberts.
8:30 p. m.—Preaching by Dr. Withrow.
All are invited.

TO EXTEND LINES.

HUNTINGTON, Feb. 26.—At the annual meeting of the trustees of the Huntington Development and Gas Company, just held, it was arranged to spend $25,000 in the extension of its present lines in Huntington during the present year. John T. McClintock was re-elected president.

ANOTHER TRIAL BECKER'S HOPE

Charles Becker (top) and Herman Rosenthal.

Attorneys for Charles Becker, former police lieutenant of New York, now under sentence of death for plotting the murder of Herman Rosenthal, are confident that their client will be granted a new trial. They base their belief on the contradictory statements that James Marshall, a negro vaudeville actor, has made.

FROM THE RT. HON. JAMES BRYCE, FORMER BRITISH AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES AND AUTHOR OF "THE AMERICAN COMMONWEALTH"

Dear Mr. Haskin:

Thank you very much for your interesting and valuable book upon the departments of the Federal Government and their working. It is full of useful and practical knowledge and I wish very much that I had had it or something like it, both when I was writing "The American Commonwealth" and when I first came here as ambassador.

I am sure we have no book over in England which gives a similar account of the actual details of the working of the various Departments in our elaborate and complicated system, though of course we have plenty of books upon the organizations of our Government as a whole and its Constitutional working. I hope you will find means of keeping the book up-to-date from time to time in new editions as frequent changes happen in a country growing so rapidly as yours.

I am,

Very truly yours,

Frederic J. Haskin, Esq.

JAMES BRYCE.
